Dear Mr. High:

This is in response to the administrative tort claim dated January 8, 2003, which you presented to the U.S. Department of Justice. The Department of Justice received your claim on January 14, 2003.

Pursuant to 28 C.F.R. § 14.2(b)(1), a claim must be presented to the federal agency whose activities gave rise to the claim. In this case, the appropriate agency for evaluating the merits of your claim is the Internal Revenue Service. Accordingly, I am forwarding your claim to that agency.

Please direct all further communication regarding your claim to the Internal Revenue Service at the address listed below.

Very truly yours,

Re: Administrative Tort Claim of George W. High Sr.;
Virginia C. High; Eric L. High & George W. High Jr.

Dear Mr. Axelrad:

This is in response to the two (2) letters that we received from your Office on Friday February 24, 2003 reference the above Tort Claims.

We "strongly disagree" with your decision to forward our claim to the Internal Revenue Service pursuant to 28 C.F.R. § 14.2 (B)(1), which reads "a claim shall be presented to the Federal Agency whose activities gave rise to the claim. In your letter you used the word "must" be presented, which is a distinct difference. Whether and if this is an intent of the Justice Dept. to wash their hands of this matter, or to simply "pass-the-buck", at any rate I specifically sent two (2) copies of the Claims for Damage, clearly marked United States Department of Justice and Department of the Treasury (IRS) as the appropriate Federal Agency. I also sent two (2) copies of supporting documentation (35 pages) and two (2) copies of the EXHIBITS, because this matter involved the Department of Justice, its components (FBI & U.S. Marshals) and also the IRS.

The IRS may well be able to evaluate the merits of Eric L. High and George W. High Jr. claims and some of the issues raised by George W. High Sr. and Virginia C. High. However, the Tort Claim issues relating to George W. High Sr. and Virginia C. High's Wrongful Imprisonment, Prt-Trial, Supervised released, and the Forfeitures under 21 U.S.C. §853 and 18 U.S.C. §982, must be investigated and decided by the Department of Justice.

Dear Mr. High:

This office is in receipt of the administrative tort claim that you filed against the Government under the Federal Tort Claims Act (FTCA). The Department of Justice has notified you via a letter of January 21, 2003, that it transferred your claim to the Internal Revenue Service. We are therefore in receipt of your completed claim that you filed under your own name (IRS Claim No. 03-050) in the amount of $8,603,240.00. We will adjudicate that claim under the provisions of the FTCA and will respond to you with our decision.

In addition to the claim that you filed on your own behalf, we are also in receipt of claim documentation indicating that you wish to file three additional claims as the legal representative of the other parties referenced above. Please be advised that a claim under the FTCA is not perfected without the signed authorization of the claimant. 28 C.F.R. § 14.2(a). We are therefore enclosing copies of the three claim Forms 95 that you provided to us for each of the parties. We ask that each prospective claimant sign his or her claim form and that you return the perfected claims to us. They may sign anywhere on the form. Those forms are provided to you for your convenience but are not necessary for the filing of a proper claim. Therefore, in the alternative, you may provide to us letters from the other claimants indicating that they are granting you power of attorney to represent them for purposes of filing these claims under the FTCA. Each party you wish to represent
